Stage set for the 10th BRICS Summit

South Africa is ready to host the 10th BRICS Summit from 25 – 27 July 2018 at the Sandton Convention Centre (SCC) in Johannesburg.

To ensure that all preparations are in place, President Cyril Ramaphosa met with members of the BRICS Inter-Ministerial Committee on 23 July 2018 at the SCC.

President Ramaphosa was accompanied on a walkabout of the SCC by the head of the BRICS Interdepartmental Logistics Committee and Chief of State Protocol of the Department of International Relations and Cooperation, Amb Nonceba Losi.

The President was appraised of all the arrangements put in place to host a successful and memorable summit.

Minister Sisulu briefs media on SA's state of readiness

On 23 July 2018, the Minister of International Relations and Cooperation, Ms Lindiwe Sisulu, addressed members of the press on South Africa's state of readiness to host the 10th BRICS Summit, scheduled for 25 to 27 July 2018 at the Sandton Convention Centre, Johannesburg.

"Our theme for the summit talks to the need to strengthen the relationship between BRICS and Africa. Accordingly, during the summit, the BRICS Leaders will have time – on 27 July 2018 – to interact with African leaders on how best we can bring about the 'inclusive growth' and 'shared prosperity' that the theme talks to.

"We are continuing with the BRICS practice initiated by our previous Chair, the People's Republic of China, to organise a BRICS-Plus Initiative. Through this initiative, BRICS aims to reach out to fellow developing and emerging market economies. In this respect, we have invited the leaders of the following countries and regional organisations who have accepted our invitation to participate in the Summit."
